

14. What does Paul mean when he says, the body is dead (Romans 8:10) but the Spirit ... will also give life to your moral bodies (Romans 8:11)?

15. What evidence does Paul offer that the Holy Spirit is able to give this kind of life (Romans 8:11)?

16. How can you apply this week's text practically in your life today?

Quotes to Ponder

The Spirit-filled life does not come through mystical or ecstatic experiences but from studying and submitting oneself to Scripture. As a believer faithfully and submissively saturates his mind and heart with God's truth, his Spirit-controlled behavior will follow as surely as night follows day. When we are filled with God's truth and led by His Spirit, even our involuntary reactions—those that happen when we don't have time to consciously decide what to do or say—will be godly.

John MacArthur

The Christian life is essentially life in the Spirit, that is to say, a life that is animated, sustained, directed, and enriched by the Holy Spirit. Without the Holy Spirit true Christian discipleship would be inconceivable, indeed impossible.

John Stott

Go forth today, by the help of God's Spirit, vowing and declaring that in life - come poverty, come wealth, in death - come pain or come what may, you are and ever must be the Lord's. For this is written on your heart, 'We love Him because He first loved us.'

A sinner can no more repent and believe without the Holy Spirit's aid than he can create a world.

Charles Spurgeon

There is no worse screen to block out the Spirit than confidence in our own intelligence.

John Calvin
