

14. How are you praying for ABC this week?

Quotes to Ponder

The greatest and only consolation of Christians in their adversities, is the knowing that God lies not, but does all things immutably, and that His will cannot be resisted, changed, or hindered.

Martin Luther

However unstable I may be, however fickle my friends may prove, God changes not. If He varied as we do, if He willed one thing today and another tomorrow, if He were controlled by caprice, who could confide in Him? But, all praise to His glorious name, He is ever the same. His purpose is fixed, His will is stable, His Word is sure.

A. W. Pink

*Change is either for the better or for the worse.
Yet both are inconceivable in God.*

John MacArthur

The doctrine of God's immutability is of the highest significance... The contrast between being and becoming marks the difference between the Creator and the creature. Every creature is continually becoming. It is changeable, constantly striving, seeks rest and satisfaction, and finds this rest in God, in Him alone, for only He is pure being and no becoming.

Hence, in Scripture God is often called the Rock.

Herman Bavinck

*God's mercy means God's goodness toward those in misery and distress.
God's grace means God's goodness toward those who deserve only punishment.*

Wayne Grudem

*The Gospel is good news of mercy to the undeserving.
The symbol of the religion of Jesus is the cross, not the scales.*

John Stott

The most miserable prison in the world is the prison we make for ourselves when we refuse to show mercy.

Warren Wiersbe
