

Reflection Questions: How long has it been since I've picked up my Bible and studied it for my own enjoyment, edification, and spiritual growth? Do I only go to God and His Word in difficult times? Why or why not? Do I see God's Word as exceedingly broad? Why or why not?

How can we pray for one another and our church this week?

Quotes to Ponder

We are the Lord's by creation, election, redemption, surrender, and acceptance; and hence our firm hope and assured belief that He will save us.

A man will surely save his own child: Lord, save me!

Charles Spurgeon

There is no limit to the perfect trustworthiness and truth of the Scripture.

It is therefore the only solid foundation on which to build a life.

Timothy Keller

As God's work in the creation of the universe is constant, it testifies to the permanence of His attributes of faithfulness which governs His relationship with man.

Leonard Cohen

The psalmist has learned in the midst of life's distractions that security comes from fixing our eyes on our Sovereign Lord and making God the exclamation point at the center of our lives.

William Varner

In a changing world you can trust God's unchanging Word.

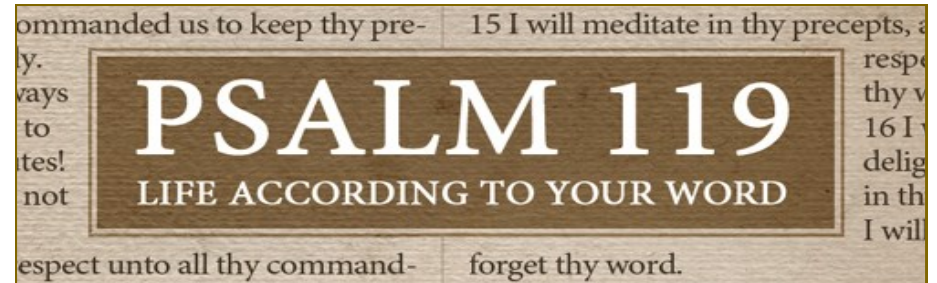

Dave Branon

If I can prove a word to have been spoken by God, I must no more question it than His own Being. It may seem to fail on earth; but it for ever settled in heaven.

Charles Bridges

Give me the plenary, verbal theory of biblical inspiration with all its difficulties, rather than the doubt. I accept the difficulties and I humbly wait for their solution. But while I wait, I am standing on the rock.
