

God is too pure to look at sin (Habakkuk 1:13). Jesus suffered and died to remove our sin so God might be able to look at us. At the moment of your salvation, how many of your sins are forgiven?

What must we do to maintain fellowship with God (1 John 1:9)?

Why is the cross of Jesus so important (1 Corinthians 2:1-2; Galatians 6:14)?

16. How can we pray for each other this week?

Quotes to Ponder

The darkness was not caused by the absence of God, but rather by His presence in full judgment, vengeance, and fury. Infinite wrath moved by infinite righteousness released infinite punishment on the Son. Because He is infinite, in just three hours He was able to absorb all the punishment of eternal hell for all who will ever believe.

John MacArthur

Spiritual darkness—turning away from God, the true light, and making anything more important than Him—leads invariably from disorientation to disintegration. And, apart from the intervention of God, we are all in spiritual darkness.

Timothy Keller

The mid-day darkness is the first of the six miracles of Calvary. It is the beginning of the divine procession of signs that heralded the death of Jesus Christ... Some of these miracles occurred in the heavens, others under the earth, yet they all established a unique class of miracles. Each of these signs attached themselves irrevocably to Christ's eternal act of redemption.
