

13. What do we work for that we think will provide peace and security?
Does it deliver? Why or why not?

Reflection Questions

Do I struggle to set aside my own desires to serve others? Is it possible that my pride has deceived me so that I don't even recognize it? Do I need to repent of my pride and humble myself before God? How do I do this?

How can we pray for one another and our church this week?

Quotes to Ponder

It is a wild, strange thing that a man should be proud when he has nothing to be proud of. A living, animated lump of clay — defiled and filthy, a living hell — and yet proud.

Charles Spurgeon

Most people today do not consider pride all that bad, certainly not something for which God would destroy an entire nation. But this says more about our light views of sin than it does about God's workings.

Kevin Higgins

How difficult it is to awaken even Christian people to an understanding of the real nature of pride.

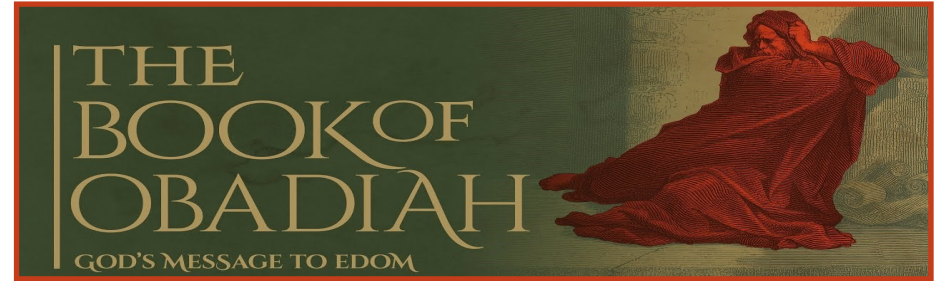

Anonymous

Pride is the attitude of life that declares its ability to live without God.

J. Vernon McGee
