

15. Why should we pray with John Revelation 22:20?

Reflection Questions: How do I show that I recognize the sovereign reign of God over my life? What am I trusting in to give me access to God? Do I have the character and characteristics in myself to allow me to stand in His holy place? Do I eagerly desire the return of Jesus in glory? Why or why not?

How can we pray for one another and our church this week?

Quotes to Ponder

The person who has clean hands and a pure heart is living in a state of grace.

Douglas D. Webster

The holy life of the true believer is not the cause of his justification before God, ... but he shall receive justification and eternal life, as a free gift from God, by virtue of the covenant of grace: therefore it is said here that he shall receive righteousness from the God of his salvation.

David Dickson

As children of God, we belong to three worlds: the world of creation around us, the world of the new creation within us (2 Cor. 5:17), and “the world to come” of the wonderful final creation that will be our home for eternity (Rev. 21-22).

Warren Wiersbe

The highest science, the loftiest speculation, the mightiest philosophy, which can ever engage the attention of a child of God, is the name, the nature, the person, the work, the doings, and the existence of the great God whom he calls his Father.

They do not ascend the hill of the Lord as givers but as receivers and they do not wear their own merits but a righteousness which they have received.

It is possible that you are saying, “I shall never enter into the heaven of God for I have neither clean hands nor a pure heart.” Look, then, to Jesus who has already ascended the holy hill. He has entered as a forerunner of those who trust in Him. He rides triumphantly into heaven and you shall ride there, too, if you trust in Him.

Charles Spurgeon
